

CODE OF CONDUCT

Authorized Contractor

Trust is a core value of The Florida PACE Funding Agency.

As Florida certified and registered contractors, you are fully aware of the importance of trust in all areas, including your internal business dealings, your external business dealings and work performed on behalf of Community property owners. At Florida PACE Funding Agency, trust remains at the forefront of our minds as we engage in business. Trust goes beyond just circumstance and involves the underlying principles that govern behavior.

The goal of this Code of Conduct is to communicate ethical principles to general situations and provide a brief statement that reflects the core values that exemplify The Florida PACE Funding Agency's commitment to trust and trustful behavior in every community in which we work.

By signing this Code of Conduct below, you are affirming on behalf of your business and its employees that your company will conduct itself at the highest level of integrity and with an industry-consistent standard of care.

Florida PACE Funding Agency Authorized Contractor Required Conduct:

- When communicating, each Contractor is expected to:
  - Be truthful in written and verbal communications among friends, peers, reports, supervisors, managers, the company, clients and the public;
  - Be gentle and moderate avoiding harassing, discriminatory or inflammatory language;
  - Value others through the practice of active listening skills.
- In actions, every Contractor is expected to:
  - Be trustworthy and characterized by integrity;
  - Make truthful representations in every situation;
  - Act appropriately, above question and in a way that reflects positively on co-workers, reports, supervisors, managers, the company, clients, Florida PACE Funding Agency, E|VEST Florida, Leidos Engineering, and the public; and
  - Deliver services at or above industry standard practice.
- Contractors must practice the fair, accurate and ethical reporting of information of any kind, including bids, materials, equipment and labor costs, credentials and personal information. Inaccuracies in reported information could subject the company or its personnel to criticism, or in the case these actions are intentional, they may be deemed a violation of prevailing law subjecting the company and its employees to civil and criminal penalties;
- Contractors are not to use their position to induce or coerce any person or entity to provide any benefit, financial or otherwise, to themselves or another person or entity. Furthermore, harassment of Property Owners by the Contractor, its employees, its managers/supervisors, agents, other customers, subcontractors or vendors is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Actions that create an offensive working environment resulting from unwanted and unwelcome behavior are prohibited;
- It is every Contractor's responsibility to report adverse personnel information. Adverse personnel information is any personal behavior, conduct or activity or consequence of such activity, that calls into question an individual's integrity, trustworthiness, reliability or willingness to comply with prevailing federal, state and local laws, established company policies, procedures or guidelines or other action that may negatively impact the Property Owner, Florida PACE Funding Agency or Leidos Engineering, its third-party administrator;
